

Risley Family Association

Membership in the Risley Family Association is open to individuals, including their spouses, that have a heritage to the surname Risley, Wrisley, Rizley, or acceptable variations. Individuals who meet this criteria may become a member of the Risley Family Association by completing this application, attaching documentation of their surname heritage, and selecting and paying the fee for one of the membership alternatives listed below.

The Risley Family Association is a non-profit association staffed by elected non-compensated voluntary RFA members. Membership fees are used to defray the out-of-pocket costs associated with the RFA operations to include genealogical research, publication and distribution of our quarterly newsletter, "The Risley Record," which each member receives, and other miscellaneous RFA expenses such as postage, third-party research costs, etc.
